

Natixis Asset Management reduces its environmental impact by carbon offsetting

2009

Natixis Asset Management has been monitoring its carbon footprint since 2009 using the Ademe method that enables the company to assess its environmental impact...

Purchasing
62%

Fixed assets
22%

Travel
8%

Energy
7%

- 15%

cut in emissions per employee between 2009 and 2014

... and take clear steps to cut back greenhouse gas emissions

Home-to-work travel

Bike park and sockets for electric vehicles provided

IT equipment

Streamlining of printer range, widespread use of multifunction printers

Business travel

Travel policy, encourage use of videoconference

Staff initiatives

Paper sorting and recycling, oil cartridge and battery sorting, etc.

2015

Carbon footprint stood at 4,056 tons of carbon equivalent or 6.54 tons per employee

2017

Natixis Asset Management offsets all its emissions via the financing of a development aid project in Tanzania

Distribution of ovens and water filters to homes in Tanzania by local companies

Local job creation

Clean air for 75,000 homes

92,500 tons of carbon equivalent offset

In partnership with

